California

Collaborative for Youth Development

TO ADVANCE POSITIVE YOUTH DEVELOPMENT AT THE STATE-LEVEL THROUGH LEADERSHIP, POLICY AND PRACTICES THAT CREATE SUPPORTS AND OPPORTUNITIES FOR YOUTH ACROSS CALIFORNIA.

CCYD invites you to join: The Collaborative for Youth Development

The California Collaborative for Youth Development (CCYD) is a coalition of organizations with statewide and/or local interests in positive youth outcomes. Members are adults and young people who represent state governmental agencies, statewide, national and community-based organizations, non-profits and foundations that share an interest and investment in the positive development of youth and youth policy.

Our meetings are not just a place to meet with youth development colleagues and share information and new knowledge (though we do that, too). CCYD also focuses on working together to further the goals of positive youth development. For example, in light of the recently passed Federal Youth Coordination Act, we are promoting the position that California needs to take similar action to plan and act in cross-sector ways to maximize the impacts of state resources designed to support our youth.

The CCYD meets monthly, generally on the 4th Monday of each month in Sacramento. Members outside of the Sacramento area participate via telephone. Afternoon meetings are held from 4:00 pm - 6:00 pm to accommodate our youth partners. Meeting announcements are posted on the CCYD website and reminders are sent out via the CCYD e-mail list. You can subscribe to this list on the website at <http://ccyouthdev.org/>
